

DANCE TEAM UNION

SHARE YOUR STORY

Team members will be asked to bring one item to camp/practice. This item will be something that symbolizes who they are, an experience that has impacted them, or a memory that they cherish. They will then be asked to share their item with the team, tell the story behind it, and why they chose it. At the end, all team members will have learned something new about their teammate.

INSTRUCTIONS

Team members will be asked the day before to bring one item to camp/practice the next day. This item will be something that symbolizes who they are, an experience that has impacted them, or a memory that they cherish.

Each team member share their item with the team, tell the story behind it, and why they chose it. At the end, all team members will have learned something new about their teammate.

The instructor/coach will go first to demonstrate. Show your item and explain how you obtained it and why it represents your or a special moment from your life.
